EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. Source of Data: Export documents collected by Customs are the basic source of export statistics, except for data on electricity and on crude petroleum exported by pipeline. Electricity exports are reported by the exporting firms through the National Energy Board, and oil exported by pipeline is reported by the pipeline companies directly to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

2. Coverage:

a. Domestic Exports: Statistics of domestic exports include both goods which are wholly produced in Canada and goods previously included in import statistics which have been changed in form by further processing in Canada and then exported.

b. Re-Exports: Statistics of re-exports include only goods previously included in import statistics which are exported from Canada in the same form as when imported. Minor operations such as sorting or re-packing are not considered as changing the condition of imported goods. From January 1964 statistics of re-exports have included exports from customs warehouses, which were previously excluded. This parallels a change in import statistics, which from January 1964 have included goods entered into customs warehouses rather than goods cleared from customs warehouses.

c. Exclusions: The following commodity movements are excluded from export statistics (some are recorded separately as Special Transactions—Non-trade in Tables 5): gold and gold products where the value of the gold content is 80% or more of the total value (a small amount of gold scrap in the form of jewellers' sweepings is included in class 256-99); current coin; settlers' effects; private donations and gifts; tourist purchases; goods shipped to Canadian armed forces or diplomats abroad or re-exported from Canada by forces of our NATO allies or by foreign diplomats; temporary exports for exhibition or competition (and film exported for exhibition or processing, or returned after exhibition or processing in Canada); exports to Canada's NATO allies financed under the Defence Appropriation Acts; bunker supplies and ships' stores sold to foreign vessels or aircraft in Canadian ports; generally, all temporary exports and goods merely moving in transit through Canadian territory.

3. Countries Credited: Exports are credited to the country to which they are consigned at the time that the goods leave Canada, i.e. to the furthest known destination of the goods.

4. Quantities: Tables 3, 4 and 5 show quantities in terms of the units specified for each class in the Export Commodity Classification, Vol. 1 (DBS Catalogue No. 12-521). Where no unit of quantity is specified, a small dash appears in the quantity columns.

Units of weight or volume relate to the weight or volume of the goods, and exclude the weight or volume of any packing required for shipment. Units of number refer to the number of complete (or substantially complete) units

NOTES EXPLICATIVES

1. Source des données: La statistique des exportations se fonde principalement sur les documents d'exportation recueillis par les Douanes, sauf dans le cas des données sur l'électricité et le pétrole brut exporté par oléoduc. Les rapports sur l'électricité sont fournis par les entreprises exportatrices par l'intermédiaire de l'Office national de l'énergie, tandis que les compagnies exportatrices de pétrole par oléoduc fournissent directement leurs rapports au Bureau fédéral de la statistique.

2. Couverture:

a. Exportations nationales: La statistique des exportations nationales comprend les marchandises entièrement produites ou fabriquées au Canada de même que les marchandises précédemment comptées dans les importations et que l'on a transformées de nouveau au Canada et ensuite exportées.

b. Réexportations: La statistique des réexportations ne comprend que les marchandises précédemment comptées dans la statistique des importations et qui sont exportées du Canada dans l'état où elles étaient lors de leur importation. Les manipulations secondaires telles que le triage ou le réemballage ne modifient pas l'état des marchandises importées. À compter de janvier 1964 la statistique des réexportations comprend les exportations des entrepôts de la douane qui précédemment étaient exclues; ceci est comparable au changement apporté dans la statistique des importations qui, à compter de janvier 1964, comprend les marchandises entrant dans les entrepôts de la douane plutôt que les marchandises dédouanées des entrepôts de la douane.

c. Exclusions: Les mouvements de marchandises suivants sont exclus de la statistique des exportations (quelques-uns sont classés séparément comme transactions spéciales—hors commerce dans le tableau 5): l'or et les articles en or dont la valeur de la teneur en or représente 80 p.100 ou plus de la valeur totale (une petite quantité de déchets d'or sous forme de balayures de bijoutiers est comprise dans la classe 256-99); la monnaie courante; les effets d'immigrants; les dons et cadeaux privés; les achats des touristes; les marchandises expédiées aux forces armées ou aux diplomates du Canada à l'étranger ou réexportées à l'extérieur du Canada par les forces armées des alliés du Canada de l'OTAN ou par les diplomates étrangers; les exportations provisoires pour les expositions ou les concours (et les films exportés en vue de leur projection ou de leur développement ou les films retournés après projection ou développement au Canada); les exportations aux alliés du Canada de l'OTAN financées en vertu des lois sur les crédits de défense; les approvisionnements de soutes et de navires vendus aux navires et aéronefs étrangers dans les ports canadiens; en général, toutes les exportations provisoires et les marchandises qui séjournent temporairement en transit, en territoire canadien.

3. Pays de destination: Les exportations sont créditées aux pays vers lesquels les marchandises sont consignées au moment de leur départ du Canada, soit la destination la plus éloignée connue.

4. Quantités: Les tableaux 3, 4 et 5 donnent les quantités selon le système d'unités indiquées pour chaque catégorie dans la Classification des marchandises d'exportation, Vol. 1 (B.F.S. numéro de Catalogue 12-521). Lorsque l'unité de quantité n'est pas requise, un petit tiret s'inscrit dans les colonnes de la quantité.

Les unités de poids ou de volumes visent le poids ou le volume des marchandises et ne comprennent pas ceux des emballages nécessités par l'expédition. Les unités de nombre représentent le nombre d'articles complets (ou dans un état exported, excluding parts (for any class where the recorded value includes both complete units and parts of these units, the average value per complete unit can not be calculated). All units of quantity used in Canadian export statistics are defined on page 7 under "Abbreviations, Definitions and Units of Quantity".

5. Values: Export entries define the value of exports as the "actual amount received or to be received in terms of Canadian dollars, exclusive of all charges" (freight, insurance, handling, etc.). This definition would give values f.o.b. point of consignment for export, but in practice it is not always followed. For example, in recent years a significant but indeterminate proportion of exports has been reported in United States dollars.

assez complet) exportés, en excluant les pièces (dans n'importe quelle catégorie de marchandises où la valeur enregistrée comprend les articles complets de même que les pièces de ces articles, il est impossible d'établir la valeur moyenne par unité complète). Toutes les unités de quantité employées dans la statistique canadienne des exportations sont expliquées en page 7 sous la rubrique "Abréviations, définitions et unités de quantité".

5. Valeurs: Les documents d'exportations définissent la valeur des exportations comme "la somme réelle reçue ou à recevoir en dollars canadiens, à l'exclusion de tous les frais" (de transport, d'assurance, de manutention, etc.). Cette définition établirait donc la valeur des exportations f. à b. point de destination, mais en réalité, on ne la respecte pas toujours. Par exemple, au cours des dernières années une proportion importante mais indéterminée des exportations a été déclarée en dollars américains.

NEW BASIS OF COMPILING TRADE STATISTICS

(Effective January 1, 1964)

Trade can conveniently be recorded at two points. One in the national frontier, the point at which goods enter into or pass beyond the control of the national government. The other is the "custom frontier", the point at which imports leave customs supervision or exports enter it. Records taken at the national boundary are known as "General Trade" statistics; records taken at the customs boundary as "Special Trade" statistics. Statistics of the same trade compiled in these two ways can differ in both magnitude and timing.

The chart below illustrates the principal flows involved in these two systems of compiling trade statistics. The arrows in the chart indicate the following movements of goods:

- (1) Most imports cross the national boundary and are immediately (or within a few days) cleared through customs for domestic use.
- (2) A growing proportion of imports crosses the national boundary and is then stored in a customs warehouse under customs supervision, rather than being cleared for domestic use. Some countries also have "free ports" and bonded processing establishments which are analogous to customs warehouses, but these are not now used in Canada.
- (3) Most of the goods stored in customs warehouses are eventually cleared through customs for domestic use, but only after some weeks or months have passed.
- (4) Most exports leave the domestic economy and immediately pass beyond the national boundary.
- (5) A small proportion of exports consists of goods entered into customs warehouses and later re-exported without ever having been cleared for domestic use.
- (6) Direct transit trade consists of goods which enter the national territory with the purpose of passing to some other country. These goods remain under customs supervision as long as they are within the national boundary. There are no statistical records of this movement.

NOUVELLE BASE DE LA STATISTIQUE DU COMMERCE

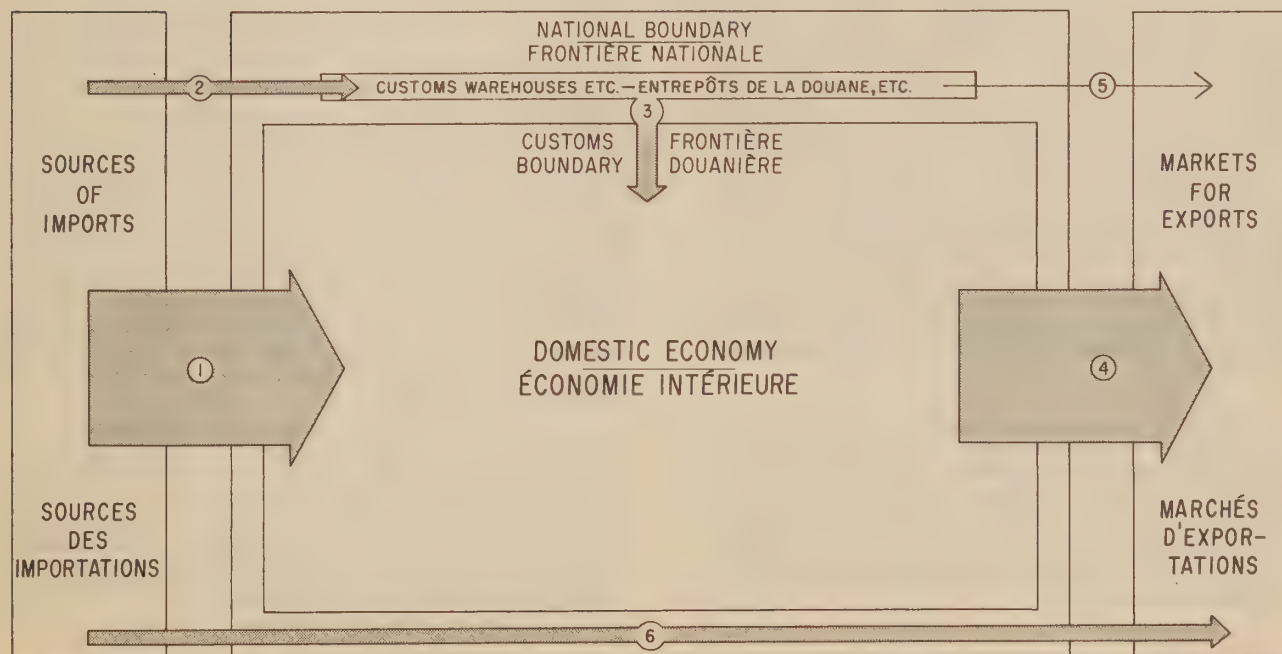

(En vigueur le 1er janvier 1964)

Les échanges commerciaux peuvent être enregistrés commodément à deux endroits, dont la frontière du pays, endroit où les marchandises tombent sous le contrôle du gouvernement national ou passent au-delà, et la frontière douanière, endroit où les importations sortent du contrôle de la douane et les exportations y entrent. Les données consignées à la frontière nationale s'appellent statistiques du "commerce général" et les données consignées à la frontière douanière, statistiques du "commerce spécial". Les statistiques du même commerce établies de ces deux façons peuvent différer quant à leur ampleur et à la périodicité.

Le graphique ci-dessous illustre les principaux mouvements que supposent les deux systèmes de calcul. Les flèches indiquent les mouvements suivants des marchandises:

- (1) La plupart des importations passent par la frontière nationale; elles sont immédiatement (ou dans les quelques jours) dédouanées pour consommation intérieure.
- (2) Une proportion croissante d'importations passe la frontière nationale pour être ensuite entreposée sous la surveillance de la douane plutôt que dédouanée pour consommation intérieure. Certains pays ont aussi des "ports libres" et des établissements de transformation analogues aux entrepôts douaniers; il n'en existe pas au Canada.
- (3) La plupart des marchandises entreposées à la douane sont éventuellement dédouanées pour consommation intérieure, mais après un certain nombre de semaines ou de mois.
- (4) La plupart des exportations quittent l'économie intérieure et passent immédiatement au-delà de la frontière nationale.
- (5) Une petite proportion des exportations se compose de marchandises entrées dans les entrepôts douaniers et plus tard réexportées sans jamais avoir été dédouanées pour consommation intérieure.
- (6) Le commerce en transit direct se compose de marchandise qui pénètrent en territoire national en vue de leur expédition vers quelque autre pays. Ces marchandises demeurent sous le contrôle de la douane aussi longtemps qu'elles sont en territoire national. Il n'existe pas de statistiques de ce mouvement.

THE FLOW OF FOREIGN TRADE LE MOUVEMENT DU COMMERCE ÉTRANGER

Until 1964, Canada's trade statistics were of the "Special Trade" type. Imports therefore included the movements indicated by arrows 1 and 3, exports the movement indicated by arrow 4. As of January 1, 1964, Canada's trade statistics are being compiled on the "General Trade" basis. Imports therefore include the movements indicated by arrows 1 and 2, exports the movements indicated by arrows 4 and 5. Direct transit trade (arrow 6) is not included in statistics under either the Special Trade or the General Trade system.

Until recently it appeared to make little difference whether Canadian trade was recorded on one basis or the other. During the period 1952-1961, goods passing through customs warehouses fluctuated between 3.1% and 2.4% of all imports, and re-exports from customs warehouses exceeded $5 million only in 1952, 1953 and 1961. Although from 1955 there was an apparent growth in warehouse stocks each year, the amounts involved were small, exceeding $10 million only in 1956 and 1959.

This situation changed when surcharges were imposed on most imports in June, 1962, as a temporary exchange conservation measure. Importers who had not previously used customs warehousing facilities began to keep stocks in customs warehouses in the hope that the surcharges would be cancelled before the goods were required. In some cases importers found that this step reduced their costs, since money no longer had to be borrowed to pay import duties in advance of the time that goods were actually required. The result was a sharp increase in the proportion of imports passing through customs warehouses, and increase which continued even after the cancellation of the surcharges in April, 1963. Imports entered into customs warehouses rose from $143 million in 1961 to $188 million in 1962 and $284 million in 1963.

This change began to create statistical problems in the latter part of 1962. There was an increase in discrepancies between Canadian records of trade in certain commodities and the statistics of partner countries. This raised the question as to whether Canada's statistics would be more useful if related to actual goods movements rather than to the technicalities of customs clearance. When it became clear that the trend towards an increased use of customs warehouses was continuing even after the cancellation of the surcharges, it was decided to change the basis on which Canadian trade statistics were compiled.

Over a period of years, the totals of Canadian exports or imports will be almost the same on either the General Trade or Special Trade basis, because of the negligible size of exports ex-warehouse. There can be a significant difference in import totals for individual years because goods which are entered into warehouse in one calendar year may not be cleared until the following year, and warehouse stocks may fluctuate in size with movements in interest rates or in general business activity. There is likely to be a measurable change in the seasonal variation of monthly import totals. It is generally true that more goods are entered into customs warehouses than are cleared from warehouse during the months when the St. Lawrence system is open for navigation, and that more goods are cleared from than entered into warehouse when the St. Lawrence system is closed. The change in the basis of recording import statistics will therefore tend to accentuate the existing seasonal fluctuation of the import totals.

It will not be feasible to adjust detailed statistics of Canadian trade for 1963 and earlier years to the new basis. Totals calculated on both systems were published in the 1964 monthly bulletin "Summary of Foreign Trade" (DBS Catalogue No. 65-001). Other monthly and quarterly Trade of Canada publications show General Trade (new basis) figures for 1964, but comparative figures for 1963 and earlier years remain on the Special Trade basis on which they were originally compiled.

Jusqu'à 1964, les statistiques du commerce du Canada étaient du type "commerce spécial". En conséquence, les importations comprenaient les mouvements indiqués par les flèches 1 et 3, et les exportations, les mouvements indiqués par la flèche 4. À compter du 1er janvier 1964, les statistiques du commerce du Canada se fondent sur le "commerce général". En conséquence, les importations comprennent les mouvements indiqués par les flèches 1 et 2, les exportations, les mouvements indiqués par les flèches 4 et 5. Le commerce "en transit direct" (flèche 6) ne figure ni dans les statistiques du commerce spécial ni dans celles du commerce général.

Jusqu'à récemment il semblait plutôt indifférent que le commerce du Canada fût consigné suivant l'une ou l'autre base. Durant la période de 1952-1961 les marchandises passant par les entrepôts de la douane ont varié entre 3.1 p. 100 et 2.4 p. 100 de toutes les importations, et les réexportations à partir des entrepôts n'ont surpassé cinq millions de dollars qu'en 1952, 1953 et 1961. Bien qu'à compter de 1955 les stocks en entrepôt aient apparemment augmenté chaque année, les montants ont été très minimes n'excédant 10 millions de dollars qu'en 1956 et 1959.

La situation a changé lors de l'imposition d'une surtaxe sur la plupart des importations, en juin 1962, comme mesure temporaire de conservation du change. Les importateurs qui antérieurement n'avaient pas utilisé les aménagements d'entreposage douaniers commencèrent d'y laisser les stocks dans l'espoir que les surtaxes seraient révoquées avant qu'ils aient besoin des marchandises. Dans certains cas les importateurs ont constaté que cette mesure réduisait leurs frais, puisqu'ils ne devaient plus emprunter pour payer les droits d'importation avant d'avoir effectivement besoin des marchandises. Il en est résulté une montée en flèche de la proportion d'importations passant par les entrepôts, augmentation qui a persisté même après l'abolition des surtaxes, en avril 1963. De 143 millions de dollars qu'elles étaient en 1961, les importations qui sont entrées dans les entrepôts sont passées à 188 millions en 1962 et à 284 millions en 1963.

Le changement a commencé à créer des problèmes à la fin de 1962. Les discordances augmentaient entre les registres du commerce canadien dans le cas de certaines marchandises et les statistiques des pays partenaires. On s'est demandé si les statistiques du Canada seraient plus utiles si elles se rapportaient aux mouvements réels des marchandises plutôt qu'aux technicalités du dédouanement. Lorsqu'il est devenu évident que même après la disparition des surtaxes la tendance persistait vers l'usage de plus en plus général des entrepôts, il a été décidé de modifier la base de calcul des statistiques du commerce canadien.

Pendant un certain nombre d'années, les chiffres des exportations ou des importations canadiennes seront à peu près identiques sur l'une ou l'autre base du commerce général ou du commerce spécial, en raison du peu d'importance des exportations à partir des entrepôts. Chaque année, les chiffres des importations peuvent varier sensiblement parce que des marchandises mises en entrepôt au cours d'une année civile peuvent n'être dédouanées que l'année suivante et les stocks des entrepôts peuvent varier en fonction des fluctuations des taux d'intérêt ou de l'activité commerciale en général. Il se produira probablement un changement mesurable de la variation saisonnière du chiffre mensuel des importations. Il est reconnu, en général, qu'il entre plus de marchandises dans les entrepôts douaniers qu'il n'en sort durant les mois où la voie maritime du St-Laurent est ouverte à la navigation et qu'il en sort plus qu'il n'en entre lorsqu'elle est fermée. La modification à la base de l'enregistrement statistique des importations tendra donc à accentuer les fluctuations saisonnières existantes des chiffres des importations.

Il ne sera pas possible d'adapter les statistiques détaillées du commerce du Canada de 1963 à la nouvelle base. Les chiffres établis d'après les deux systèmes ont été publiés dans le bulletin mensuel de 1964 du B.F.S. Summary of Foreign Trade numéro de catalogue 65-001. Les autres publications mensuelles et trimestrielles sur le Commerce du Canada donnent, pour 1964, les chiffres du commerce général (nouvelle base), mais les chiffres comparatifs pour 1963 et les années antérieures demeurent sur la base du commerce spécial, d'après laquelle ils ont été initialement établis.

The following table presents import totals on the old and new bases for the period 1952-1963 and illustrates the main flows involved in this change of systems.

Le tableau qui suit donne les chiffres des importations suivant les deux bases pour la période de 1952-1963 et illustre les principaux mouvements que suppose le changement de système.
